Akon is a R&B singer-songwriter,, record producer, businessman, and philanthropist. He rose to prominence in 2004 following the release of “Locked Up”, the first single from his debut album Trouble. His second album, Konvicted, earned him a Grammy Award nomination of the single “Smack That”. He has since founded two record labels, Konvict Muzik and Kon Love Distribution. Akon often sings hooks for other artists and is currently accredited with over 200 guest appearances and 32 Billboard Hot 100 songs. He is the first solo artist to accomplish the feat of holding both the number one and two spots simultaneously on the Billboard Hot 100 charts twice.

Lil Jon, is an Atlanta native and American producer, promoter, and rapper. He is best known as a pioneer of the hip hop sub-genre crunk and has become a fixed icon in the Hip Hop industry in less than a decade. His work is recognizable by his distinctive hype shouts of "what?!", "hey!", "yeah!", and "okay!". In addition to his numerous hits, he has collaborated and produced chart-topping records for well-known artists including Ludacris, Usher, Ying Yang Twins, and Ciara.

Sean Garrett is an American singer, songwriter and record producer. Garrett is responsible for a series of chart-topping compositions, most notably Usher's “YEAH!”, Ciara's breakout track “Goodies” and Chris Brown's debut single “Run It!”. He is in a production duo with Swizz Beatz, and together they produced several Beyonce Knowles singles: “Diva”, “Ring the Alarm”, “Get Me Bodied”, “Upgrade U” and “Check on It”. His debut album Turbo919 was released June 24, 2008, on his own record label, "Bet I Penned It Music".

BEAT Birthday Bash 10 is presented by Melrose Place on the CW 69 and sponsored by Boost Mobile. Budweiser, and Westwood College.
